DISCUSSION/ACTION: SCHOOL CALENDAR

Assistant Superintendent Barb Dill-Varga presented the Board with the previously approved 2009-2010 school calendar with recent additions of school improvement days and Prairie State Exam days noted. Board consensus was to bring this 2009-2010 calendar back on the consent agenda for approval at the June 8, 2009 meeting.

She also presented them with a first draft for discussion of the 2010-2011 calendar. Board member Martin asked for a list of parameters used in the general preparation of school calendars to assist new board members in understanding the process used in producing these drafts. This draft will be shared with sender districts and further discussion of this calendar will occur at the June 8, 2009 meeting. President Shein asked that Board members send questions to Dr. Riggle.

DISCUSSION/ACTION: GRAPHING CALCULATOR PROPOSAL

Dr. Riggle provided an introduction to the proposal for graphing calculators being brought forward at this time by reminding the Board about the details of the first calculator proposal approved by the Board in 1994.

He provided an overview which highlighted the differences and similarities between the two calculator proposals: TI-Nspire for Glenbrook North and TI-Nspire CAS at Glenbrook South. He introduced the two math instructional supervisors and building administrators who provided details on this plan.

Robin Levine-Wissing, Glenbrook North instructional supervisor of math, provided detail on the North proposal. She highlighted the advantages of essentially having a hand held computer to do calculations. She informed the Board of the numerous curricular developments now available based on using the TI-Nspire. The new calculator allows for a dynamic interface between data and graphs with multiple screens. Free upgrades and new applications/operating systems are available from TI's website. Phil Gartner also referenced the advantage of it being document based. The calculator would be phased in at Glenbrook

North as each freshman class entered the district. At Glenbrook South, the phase in would occur course by course.

Board consensus, after a brief discussion, was to place the calculator proposal on the consent agenda for the June 8, 2009 board meeting.
